

Applications for naturalisation or registration under British Nationalist Act 1981

Hourly rate: £170 - £230

On average, this type of work takes between 2-5 hours to complete. All figures exclude VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. These include, but are not limited to:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Complexity of your case
- Timely instructions
- Documents being supplied at the outset of the case

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make, and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 2 to 3 hours*;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 1 hour*;
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

*the number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing, and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents, and the complexity of the case.

Disbursements are not included in the costs set out above. Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements must be paid 2 weeks prior to the deadline date.

- Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts. These are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and, of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.

Applications on behalf of EEA nationals and their family members

Hourly rate: £170 - £230

On average, this type of work takes between 2-3 hours to complete. All figures exclude VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. These include, but are not limited to:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Whether you are applying with other dependants
- Complexity of your case
- Timely instructions
- Documents being supplied at the outset of the case

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make, and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how, which on average takes 1 hour;
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 1 to 2 hours*;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 1 hour*;
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

*the number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing, and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents, and the complexity of the case.

Disbursements are not included in the costs set out above. Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements must be paid 2 weeks prior to the deadline date.

- Interpreters fees at approximately £100 per hour. This kind of application will normally require approximately 1 hour with an interpreter, depending on the complexity of your case.
- Translators fees at approximately £100 per hour. This kind of application will normally require approximately 1 hour with a translator, depending on the complexity of your case.
- Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts. These are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and, of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.

Student and Work Visas

Hourly rate: £170 - £230

On average, this type of work takes between 2-3 hours to complete. All figures exclude VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. These include, but are not limited to:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Timely instructions
- Complexity of your case
- Whether you are applying with other dependants
- Documents being supplied at the outset of the case

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make, and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 1 to 2 hours*;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 1 hour*;
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

*the number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing, and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents, and the complexity of the case.

Disbursements are not included in the costs set out above. Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements must be paid 2 weeks prior to the deadline date.

- Interpreters fees at approximately £100 per hour. This kind of application will normally require approximately 1 hour with an interpreter, depending on the complexity of your case.
- Translators fees at approximately £100 per hour. This kind of application will normally require approximately 1 hour with a translator, depending on the complexity of your case.
- Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts. These are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and, of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.

Visit Visas

Hourly rate: £170 - £230

On average, this type of work takes between 2-3 hours to complete. All figures exclude VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. These include, but are not limited to:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Complexity of your case

- Timely instructions
- Whether you are applying with dependants
- Number of sponsors
- Documents being supplied at the outset of the case

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make, and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 1 to 2 hours*;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 1 hour*;
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

*the number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing, and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents, and the complexity of the case.

Disbursements are not included in the costs set out above. Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements must be paid 2 weeks prior to the deadline date.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and, of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.

Spousal and Partner Visas

Hourly rate: £170 - £230

On average, this type of work takes between 3-5 hours to complete. All figures exclude VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. These include, but are not limited to:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Complexity of your case
- Timely instructions
- Whether you are applying with dependants
- Documents being supplied at the outset of the case

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make, and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 2 to 3 hours*;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 2 hours*;
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

*the number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing, and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents, and the complexity of the case.

Disbursements are not included in the costs set out above. Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements must be paid 2 weeks prior to the deadline date.

- Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts. These are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and, of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.

Points-Based Applications

Hourly rate: £170 - £230

On average, this type of work takes between 2-4 hours to complete. All figures exclude VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. These include, but are not limited to:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Whether you are applying with other dependants
- Complexity of your case

- Timely instructions
- Documents being supplied at the outset of the case

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make, and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 2 to 3 hours*;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 1 hour*;
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

*the number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing, and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents, and the complexity of the case.

Disbursements are not included in the costs set out above. Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements must be paid 2 weeks prior to the deadline date.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and, of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.

Dependant Visas

Hourly rate: £170 - £230

On average, this type of work takes between 2-5 hours to complete. All figures exclude VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. These include, but are not limited to:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Whether you are applying with other dependants
- Complexity of your case
- Timely instructions
- Documents being supplied at the outset of the case

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make, and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 2 to 3 hours*;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 1 hour*;
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

*the number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing, and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents, and the complexity of the case.

Disbursements are not included in the costs set out above. Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements must be paid 2 weeks prior to the deadline date.

- Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts. These are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and, of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.

Ancestry Visas

Hourly rate: £170 - £230

On average, this type of work takes between 3-5 hours to complete. All figures exclude VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. These include, but are not limited to:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Whether you are applying with other dependants
- Complexity of your case
- Timely instructions
- Documents being supplied at the outset of the case

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make, and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 2 to 3 hours*;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 1 hour*;
- Attendance at a Home Office interview: if the home Office ask you to attend an interview, we will give you clear advice (and discuss the possibility of us attending with you) at the appropriate time. This could be between 1 and 2 hours of work. This excludes travel time.
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

*the number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing, and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents, and the complexity of the case.

Disbursements are not included in the costs set out above. Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements must be paid 2 weeks prior to the deadline date.

- Interpreters fees at approximately £100 per hour. This kind of application will normally require approximately 1 hour with an interpreter, depending on the complexity of your case.
- Translators fees at approximately £100 per hour. This kind of application will normally require approximately 1 hour with a translator, depending on the complexity of your case.
- Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts. These are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.
- If there is an interview and we do attend with you, there will be additional disbursements in respect of our mileage/travel expenses.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 3 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and, of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.